DOUBT HEART ATTACK THEORY. Belief That J. Kenneth Nealey Suffered from Sudden Cramp.

Parents of J. Kenneth Nealey, drowned at Old Killingly pond Sun-day, have been located at Hampden heights, Me., and are expected here to claim the body. The theory that Nealey suffered a heart attack is not accepted as wholly correct, if at all, by persons who have investigated the case and they are more inclined to the case and they are more inclined to the bellef that a severe cramp was re-sponsible for his death. For his age, Nealey had an exceptional physique. He was magnificently developed and there was nothing outward to indicate that he had a weak heart. Some be lieve that if he could have been im-mediately brought to the surface resuscitation would have been possible

UP-TO-DATE BARN

To Be Built by W. S. Brown on His

The construction of a fine barn has been commenced at the Shepard hill farm of W. S. Brown. This barn is to include all modern ideas for the construction of such structures and will be one of the most convenient in the state. Mr. Brown also has In the state. Mr. Brown also has plans for the construction of cow sheds with all up-to-date equipment. The only livestock on the farm at the present time is horses, but 100 head of thoroughbred cattle are to be kept there and the herd will probably have reached a good proportion of its contemplated size this fall. Mr. Brown will build a new dwelling on the farm this fall.

An unfounded report, growing out of accidents elsewhere, caused a story to spread about town that a young man had been killed in a metercycle accident here Monday.

It is stated that an effort will be made to get the city to vote an appropriation for the improvement of Providence street in the north end of

Delay in Federal Building Matter. A Washington despatch says: The Putnam federal building case is being held up awaiting additional legislations, thanks to the efforts of former Representative Bryan F. Mahan, now postmaster at New London. The plan is to have the present government site in Putnam exchanged for another one. The delay is apt to continue for a year or more.

The opinion here is that the delay certainly will be for at least a year. As congress is not expected to reconvene until next December no action can be taken as to new legislation before that time and several months of 1916 may elapse, it is said, before the desired legislation can be enacted. a year or more.

Property Revaluation Probable. There are a number of circumstancplan of revaluing the property of the town has not been given up, notwith-standing the fact that previous efforts along that Mne have not met with the success that was expected. It is possible that a well organized propaganda for a revaluation may be inaugurated in the near future and the claimed advantages of revaluation set forth in detail. A higher valuation with a correspondingly lower tax rate is what many of the revaluation expon- city.

ents are anxious to bring about. It is said, that there will also be considerable opposition to any plan to revalue the property of the town and city.

BRINGING WAR SORROWS Many Afflicted Hearts as the Results of Conflicts Abroad.

As the great struggle in Europe prolongs itself through many months, sorrow after sorrow is being heaped upon many foreign-born residents in Putnam and surrounding towns. It is with something akin to dread that most of those who have relatives abroad now receive a letter from their old homes. Every mail brings them new tidings of relatives killed and wounded, homes destroyed and loved ones suffering the latterest anguish. These tidings follow relatives here in-to the shops, schools and even the convents. The burden is constantly becoming greater for them to bear and there are some cases of nerve-strain htat are pitiful, as the result of worry over relatives who are soldiers and in daily danger of death. This condi-tion is not confined to any one na-tionality represented here, but embraces all of the leading peoples gaged on both sides of the war.

Pontal Savings Regulations. Postmaster Alexander Gilman has ssued the government's new regulation relative tion relative to postal savings ac-counts and setting forth that every person in the United States, if ten years of age or over, may open a postal savings account after June 1 The receipts in the savings depart-ment at the local postoffice continue to grow and the number of accounts to ir crease. Memorial Plans.

Memorial day plans for Putnam are practically completed and are much the same as in other years. The members of A. G. Warner post, G. A. R., will assemble in the morning and proceed to St. Mary's cemetery where the graves of the soldier dead will be dec-oratd. In the afternoon the services are to be at the Grove street ceme-tery and the graves of the soldiers there will be decorated.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurements. Ordinary mercolized wax is far better; it literally peels off the freckles. Get an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and tonight spread on enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat dally until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, blotchy, pimpled skin, also common at this season, may be entirely gotten rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the new complexion obtained being so clear, smooth and youthful.

If bothered with wrinkles, bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This is the most effective and quickest-acting wrinkle treatment known.

Missing a Week.

George William Wheeler, a widely known dairyman residing on the old Robinson farm, on the road below Packerville, left home one morning about a week ago, saying that he was going to the woods to get a helfer was going to the woods to get a helfer and taking a rope along. No word has been heard from him since. At the time he left home he carried a large sum of money and foul play is feared. A report that he was seen in New York proved to be untrue. Mr. Wheeler is tall and slim, about 40 years of age and when last seen wore his working clothes. He has a wife and four sons.
